Dear Harold

Bud goes through the motions of pretending What say about this?
he does not know the source of this, telling me with a knowing smile that it merely came to him by mail.
His manner leaves no doubt that if the envelope had no return address. it Bud did not surprise him when it reached him. It appears to have arrived after his return from a trip to California where, among other things, he made radio/TV appearances.